

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
WESTERN DIVISION

XCENTRIC VENTURES, L.L.C., an
Arizona limited liability company; and
ED MAGEDSON, an individual,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

BEN SMITH, in his individual capacity
as Sac County Attorney,

Defendant.

No. C15-4008-MWB

ORDER

This case is before me on two motions filed by a pro se non-party, Shawn Richeson. The first is a motion (Doc. No. 51) to intervene in this action. The second is a motion (Doc. No. 53) to withdraw the motion to intervene and request that the court take judicial notice of the exhibits attached to the motion. Plaintiffs have filed resistances to both motions and have requested that they be stricken. See Doc. Nos. 52, 54.

Without wasting time to belabor the point, both motions are frivolous and improper efforts to interject Richeson's unrelated grievances against plaintiffs and their counsel into this lawsuit. Richeson presented no good faith basis to intervene in this case, either as of right or permissively. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 24. His motions are nothing but the misappropriation of this court's docket as a public forum to air his attacks.

Richeson's motion (Doc. No. 53) to withdraw his motion to intervene and request that the court take judicial notice of the exhibits attached to the motion is granted, but only to the extent that his motion to intervene (Doc. No. 51) is hereby deemed to be withdrawn and, therefore, is denied as moot. However, the court will not take judicial notice of any exhibits Richeson has filed.

Plaintiffs' requests (Doc. Nos. 52, 54) to strike Richeson's filings are granted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(f) on grounds that they contain immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter. The Clerk shall strike all of Richeson's filings (Doc. Nos. 51 and 53) from the docket. If Richeson makes any further attempt to misuse this Court's docket or process, he will be required to appear in person and show cause as to why he should not be sanctioned.

The Clerk shall mail a copy of this order to Richeson at the address set forth in his now-stricken filings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 3rd day of November, 2015.
